

Title of Invention: Retail Identification System

Application No. 10/689,181

Inventor's: Laiwalla, Cosaro, and Tierney

Abstract of Disclosure

[0035] This invention is used to collect information about the identity of a person for check cashing and age verification purposes. The source of this information will come from a driver license, check information, thumb print, photograph, phone number, and other user inputs.